Do not be afraid to develop your gifts and skills, there is nothing to fear. Nearly anyone and everyone can communicate with Spirit. There is no need to doubt yourself. You can heal yourself, connect to your higher consciousness, and live life with greater clarity.

Introduction

Our world is more noisy and distracting than it ever has been. Even simple living has its modern complexities. Cars, radios, planes, construction, war, cell phones, storage units full of crap we don't need, chemicals, credit cards, mortgages, the stock market, jobs, college, the internet, television, and forever the list continues. With all of these moving parts, it is a miracle we maintain any order at all. In fact, so much of our energy is dedicated to creating and maintaining order, we haven't time for much else.

How do we find time for our spirits? Where do we access the non-physical universe? When do we squeeze in spiritual development? How are we to have a spiritual awakening in this modern world? How do we achieve higher consciousness while our neighbor's car alarm is screeching? Besides all the noise and distractions, how do we sift through all the conflicting spiritual modalities in the age of information? It is simple, not easy.

Would Jesus or Buddha have developed as masterfully in our modern world? Probably, they were pretty amazing. Although, the rest of us may feel subpar to these prophets; they delivered similar messages: Love each other, be good humans, and if you quiet your mind, you too can be amazing like me.

Jesus said, “ Truly, truly, I say to you, He who believes in me, the works which I do he shall do also; even greater than these things he shall do.” The Buddha said, “If a man can control his mind he can find the way to Enlightenment, and all wisdom and virtue will naturally come to him.”

Introduction – Continued

I thought, “Awesome, I can do all the things Jesus did; and if I can control my mind, I'll naturally obtain wisdom and virtue. Check. I'll figure out enlightenment after I wake up, feed my cats, put on my make-up, get dressed, clean, meditate real quick, rush to work, work all day, sit in traffic for two hours, somehow eat, go to class, come home, shower, meditate real quick again, and fall asleep....shit. ...can I figure it out in my sleep? Maybe I could be a vagabond like Jesus and Buddha? I'll just quit my job, and dedicate my life to spiritual development.”

These are the thoughts that ran through my head when I began to awaken. I had a painful awakening.

After some time, I realized my life on earth wasn't about recreating the life of a spiritual master. I understood I held myself to standards that had nothing to do with me, and it had caused me pain. My favorite epiphany was when I realized that I was choosing to feel pain. Once I stepped out of that pain, and into peace, I decided I wanted to help others awaken. I was certain we could develop spiritually, and achieve higher consciousness with less confusion and side effects. Dedicated to helping others, I picked up data along my path with the intention of using it to help others connect to the non-physical universe. It is within that connection that people achieve knowing and peace.

How do you manage a spiritual awakening in the modern world? It is simple, not easy. You set an intention to connect to the Non-Physical world, and learn to control your mind.

You can do this.

It's not easy to awaken in this modern world of overwhelming distractions, ideas, and dogma; but it is simple. Connecting to the non-physical universe is so simple that everyone is bypassing the surest route: mind control. Humans are tantalized by compartmentalization, complication, categorization, and labeling; but these actions only hold us back. Our subconscious minds love to tell us, "This has nothing to do with your mind. The path to higher consciousness is complicated. You must subscribe to a tribe, one insular level of thinking, and allow yourself to believe it is the only way." This course will help you to control your subconscious mind, allowing you to enjoy your awakening.

Welcome to your modern awakening, this is your moment. What you do with your moment is up to you. I can provide the tools you need, but I cannot do the work for you. The practice is simple, not always easy, but always worth it.

I am humbled, honored, and grateful to embark on this journey with you.

Love and Light,
Rev. Meg
